JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

One Hundred and Ten Months (110) on each of Counts 1 and 13 of the First Superseding Indictment, to be served concurrently. It is ordered that the defendant shall receive credit for time served.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately or may be paid during the term of supervised release.

All fines are waived as it is found that such sanction would place an undue burden on the defendant's dependents.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of Four (4) Years under the following terms and conditions. This term consists of Four (4) Years on each of Counts 1 and 13, all such terms to run concurrently. (1) the defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation

Office and General Order 318; (2) the defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer; (3) the defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision; (4) during the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer; (5) as directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 USC 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer; (6) during the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this Judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; (7) When not employed at least part-time and/or enrolled in an educational or vocational program, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer; (8) the defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name; (9) the defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be a Hard Times gang member, with the exception of her family members. He may not knowingly wear, display, use or possess any Hard Times gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing, which evidences affiliation with the Hard Times gang, and may not knowingly display any Hard Times signs or gestures; (10) as directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to him to be a location where members of the Hard Times gang meet and/or assemble; and (11) the defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

THE COURT RECOMMENDS that the defendant be afforded the opportunity to participate in the Bureau of Prisons' 500 hour drug rehabilitation program.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal and if the defendant so wishes, defense counsel shall file a Notice of Appeal on behalf of the defendant.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to an institution in the Southern California area.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
